

Concert Host Script

GAELYNN LEA

HOST: "Welcome to today's virtual concert. Today's concert features a songwriter and violinist from Duluth, MN named Gaelynn Lea."

VISUAL: Picture of Gaelynn Lea

HOST: "In this first video, listen as Gaelynn introduces herself and tells a little about her disability."

VIDEO: Virtual Class Notes Concerts: Gaelynn Lea \(Part One\) (3 min.)

HOST: "Let's listen as Gaelynn plays a traditional fiddle tune called Southwind."

VIDEO: Virtual Class Notes Concerts: Gaelynn Lea \(Part Two\) (2 min.)

HOST: "Gaelynn Lea frequently uses a looping pedal in her music. In the next video, she will explain how a looping pedal works."

VIDEO: Virtual Class Notes Concerts: Gaelynn Lea \(Part Three\) (3 min.)

HOST: "Next, Gaelynn Lea will play a piece that features the looping pedal. Even though the song sounds a little sad, it's actually a happy song about friendship. The song is called, Someday We'll Linger in the Sun."

VIDEO: Virtual Class Notes Concerts: Gaelynn Lea \(Part Four\) (3 min.)

HOST: "The next piece in our virtual concert is a duet, which means there is a part for us! We'll watch the first minute and a half of the video to learn our part. Then we'll pause the video and practice a little."

Practice singing, "Bird, why do you sing? Fate has clipped your wings."

HOST: "Now, let's get ready to sing. Gaelynn will cue us when it's time to sing."
